

Jose A. Bastida

October 22, 1968 - June 26, 2020

Everyone who knew Jose loved him. He was a wonderful son to his parents, Juan and Estela, a good father and role model to his son, Luis, and a loving husband and companion to his wife, Andrea. Jose and Andrea met when they were children in 1974, they began dating in 1989 and were married in 1992. Even after so many years, they loved to spend time together. Jose was always kind and loving towards his family. He was good to everyone around him. His sense of humor and kindness made people feel comfortable and at home with him. Jose was always ready to help anybody who needed help. He was always friendly with neighbors, family, and friends. He loved to listen to charangas music and throw parties and gatherings for his family. Jose was passionate about his job as a supervisor in plastics. He worked in the industry for more than 20 years and was wanting to be better and better every day. Words cannot express how much he will be missed.

Todos los que conocían a José lo amaban. Fue un hijo maravilloso para sus padres, Juan y Estela, un buen padre y modelo a seguir para su hijo, Luis, y un esposo amoroso y compañero de su esposa, Andrea. José y Andrea se conocieron cuando eran niños en 1974, comenzaron a salir en 1989 y se casaron en 1992. Incluso después de tantos años, les encantaba pasar tiempo juntos. José siempre fue amable y amoroso con su familia. Era bueno con todos los que lo rodeaban. Su sentido del humor y amabilidad hicieron que las personas se sintieran cómodas y en casa con él. José siempre estaba listo para ayudar a cualquiera que lo necesitara. Siempre fue amigable con los vecinos, familiares y amigos. Le encantaba escuchar música de charangas y organizar fiestas y reuniones para su familia. A José le apasionaba su trabajo como supervisor en plásticos. Trabajó en la industria durante más de 20 años y quería ser cada vez mejor cada día. Las palabras no pueden expresar cuánto será extrañado.

“ Mi tío Toño, te extraño.
Extraño tu sonrisa y tu gentileza.
Extrañaré verte bailar, tu risa, tu abrazo.
Gracias a Dios por haberte tenido en nuestras vidas.

“ Eras la vida de la fiesta.
Una fiesta se ponía buena cuando tu y Andrea se paraban a bailar y se veía cuanto la amabas y te divertías siempre sonriente bailando con el amor de tu vida.
Gracias por reunir a la familia con todos los festejos de cumpleaños, aniversario, etc.
Y siempre te acordabas de los niños, aunque fuera fiesta con la mayoría de adultos, siempre les tenías un brincolín para que se divirtieran también.
Una reunión familiar no será igual sin ti. Te extrañaremos y recordaremos con cariño.

Fuiste tierno, amable, cariñoso, y siempre sonriente.

“Para Los que Ame y me Amaron”
Cuando yo me vaya, déjenme ir...
Tengo muchas cosas que hacer y ver.
No se aten a mí con sus lágrimas.
Por los hermosos años que vivimos juntos
Demos gracias a “Dios”

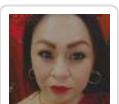

Yo les di mi “Amor”. Ustedes pensarán
En la alegría que me manifestaron.
Les doy las “Gracias” a cada uno de Ustedes
Por el “Amor” que me brindaron
Pero ahora tengo que viajar solo.

Si tienen que llorar, lloren un momento.
Dejen que la “Fe” en “Dios” reconforte su pena...
Sólo nos separaremos por un tiempo,
Mantengan los recuerdos en sus corazones.

Aunque no me miren ni me puedan tocar.
Yo estaré cerca
Sentirán el calor de mi “Amor” en sus corazones.
Cuando ustedes tengan que viajar por este camino,
Yo los recibiré con una sonrisa y les diré...

¡Sean Bienvenidos !!!...
Y ya nunca nos separaremos.

“ Dear Bastida family – Andrea, Luis, Dona Estela and Don Juan,

Please accept our deepest condolences for the passing of Jose!

He was a lovely, compassionate and caring person, a real and noble friend and neighbor. We remember the first time we saw him – it was the first day we entered our new home, right next to your house. It was difficult time for us and he greeted us with a smile and the statement: “If you need help, call me! I live next door.” During the following years he showed us in deeds the meaning of the words kindness and friendship, for which we are forever grateful !

Jose is so special that he can never be forgotten! May his soul rest in peace!

May our Lord bless and comfort you and your family during this time of pain!

“ To the Bastida family, my heart is extremely heavy hearing the sad news of Jose passing. I was lucky enough to have worked with him at Amcor and saw the beautiful Person he was inside and out. He truly cared about his crew and coworkers, he made you feel like you matter and he would do anything for you. I spoke to him when he started his new job and he was so excited to do what he loved. He loved his son and his wife, we had so many fond conversation together and even shared in the ALS Ice Bucket Challenge. God bless you my friend. Please rest in peace. I pray you can find comfort in how we all truly respected and loved him. Hugs my friend, Amy Murray

“ I consider myself lucky to have known and worked with Jose. He took over my shift when I moved on to a different job in the company and he was so well respected. I would see him work so hard day in and day out and have the full respect from his co-workers. May you Rest In Peace Jose. Heaven truly got a new angel when they got you. Be at peace my friend.

No matter what he was going through he never let it show as he could always be seen with such a big smile. You will be missed, remembered, and loved always.
