“ My brother David was dating Lisa for 3 years . I live in Texas , ; I was on vacation this summer in July and finally had the pleasure of meeting Lisa . My brother David loved her so much . I remember teasing her because she was so quiet . Telling her not to talk so much . She laughed . So sweet . I was blessed with getting to meet her . God bless . Lucy Padilla Gombash

“ David called her” My Lisa” his love for her was obvious. She made him happy. She was my friend. I miss her! Lisa and I laughed a lot. My heart goes out to David. Lisa was a strong women but she leaned on David. He enjoyed caring for his shy Lisa. They truly cared for each other. It was wonderful to be a small part of her life. She is without pain. Her love is here in our hearts. She is always smiling. Love you Lisa!

“ I talked to Lisa on the phone on Fri, Aug 2. She was so upbeat. We laughed because we were talking about her cat. I asked how she was and she said it was getting fat. I said It better not be. Then laughed as we changed it to "fluffy" instead of fat. The last time I saw her was Jul 19th at Walmart in Joliet. We returned to Florida the next morning. I told her I liked her hair cut short as she recently had it cut (I always tried to compliment her to keep her spirits up). She was laughing and she looked good. We hugged each other and said I love you. I wish we had taken a picture together :(
