“ What a fine memorial for Adrian Cavazos. You could easily see that every part was carefully chosen with love by the family. The funeral chapel was well organized and caring. The selections for Adrian's outfit, flowers, gravesite, prayers, and warm hospitality was appreciated, and well received by friends and family. As one of Adrian's son's said, "he would love seeing everyone here". I especially enjoyed the final Spanish song played by Delgado Funeral Home at the end of the service. If someone could please share the name of that song I would very much appreciate it. I again send my deepest condolences to the family who clearly loved Adrian and will miss him. God bless Cindy and children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren today and always. Love from someone who is also your distant cousin, Ruth Murillo Kinchus, also known as "Root-pa-toot".

“ I remember my cousin Adrian as you would a big brother. Many in our family had "nicknames". Adrian's nickname was "Dee Dee". I don't know how he got that name- but we used it throughout his life. Although our families lost touch, I will always remember Dee Dee with great fondness. He was shy and reliable. He would babysit us cousin many nights. He would play 60's rock and roll for us and ask about our lives. Dee Dee was always a sharp dresser and I loved his "James Dean" slicked-back haircut. I felt like he was one of the "cool kids". Dee Dee's uncle "Feathers" (my dad's nickname) could rely of him to help with many matters when Feathers needed help. I knew that Dee was not well and it makes me sad if he suffered with poor health for a long time. I pray that Dee Dee has peace with his parents and beloved family in heaven. God bless the family today and always. Love from your cousin Ruthie

For years our families lived in the same location. Early on in Chinatown we lived in the front apartment and Tia Angie and the family were in the back, then on 26th street off Archer near Halsted we lived on the first floor and Tia and Tio with our cousins were on the second floor. Like most people your first cousins are your first friends in life and over time like my sister stated you lose touch but when we needed Dee Dee to help us move from Chicago Ridge to Worth Mom and I called him and he made it work for us. Thank you for being there, your mom and my mom spent so many good times together bowling and tournament trips she was a big part of our lives and so were you. Rest In Peace your work here is done.

Your cousin,

Dinky
