I only knew him for a short time share a hospital room with him for three weeks we kept each other spirits up he will be surly missed.

William Perkins - February 23, 2019 at 01:18 AM

He was an amazing soul. He helped me so much when we were in the hospital in 2018. I regret not texting him enough when we both got out. I remember his mom texting me he passed when I did text him one day. RIP Alec. You treated me like a human, a friend. You knew what I been through and you treated me like a human. I miss you and thank you so much for that.

“ I’ll never forget Alec as a small young man sticking to his computer like glue, playing video games and just being a very sweet boy. He knew I loved him and cared about him. It broke my heart to hear about the health struggles that he endured for 4 long years and longer years for his loving mother grandmother and family. He is with Jesus now and it’s my prayer that all that loved him take comfort in that
