“ I have so many memories of Angeline, Tiny, My sister-in-love. Because even after we weren't legally related any more, we still were. We still loved, cared and looked out for each other. She truly IS my sister-in-love. I'm posting this glamor shots pic, because I remember her getting a big kick out of being "glamorous." Her laugh and joking of things, I will keep in my heart. Her Love and Helpfulness I will try to carry on, and remember her. I'll buy something and say, "It's on sale, Someone will fit into it. Or someone will use it." Mostly I'll remember praying with her. Singing with her and her lifting her hand in Praise to GOD. Then we'd end up laughing at the end because we had forgotten the words. 🙏💔

I LOVE YOU, TINY.

*This was one of my life long friends.
We grew up together in Lockport in the hill area
We kept in contact when we could she would come visit me and we'd just sit and talk about past and family
I'm sorry for your loss but I wish I had have had a chance to see her and say goodbye
I WILL TRULY MISS MY FRIEND

*I'm sorry I was not there to help comfort her in her time of need. We were life long friends from the time in Lockport growing up with all the girl and baby boy
I will truly miss Tinyi didn't see the obit until three weeks had went by so I wasn't able to be there for her home going
I would like to hear from someone in the family*
