Charles Ray Laine

Age 61 passed away Friday February 17, 2012.

He was born to Aslle and Herod Laine on October 17, 1950 in Winnsboro, Louisiana and was a lifelong resident of Joliet.

He worked at Milano's Bakery in the late 1970's and later became a machinist at a local Joliet chemical plant until he became ill.

Preceded in death by his parents, two brothers; George and Love Laine also one sister; Leatha Young (nee Laine).

Charles leaves to mourn, his longtime companion; Pearline Arthur, Four brothers; Harry and Willie Laine of Kankakee, James Laine of Rockdale and Johnny Miller of Joliet. One sister; Fannie Mae Banks of Delhi, Louisiana, two best friends; James "Dot" McCullough and James Butler. Also numerous family members and friends.

Charles loved the outdoors. He enjoyed hunting, fishing and biking.

A few days before he passed away he asked his niece Karen. What would you do if you were in my shoes.

She replied enjoy life and look out the window at the world around you.

Karen would like to share that she is very proud that her uncle took her advice and enjoy the final days of his life.

Special thanks to; Silver Cross Hospital staff, Provena St. Joseph Medical Center, Provena Villa Franciscan and Provena Hospice.
