“ Last Thursday I came home from work and found Papa wide awake. I took a seat next to his bed and had the best conversation ever! We talked about his youth, how he loved to watch the guys play ball en el cerro, his novias, children and grand children. He was all smiles and even a couple of chuckles came through. After 15-20 mins of talking I would ask Papa if he was tired and wanted to rest. He would answer no, let's keep talking. Cousin Chela joined in the conversation. We talked for well over an hour. I will cherish that memory for the rest of my life. God bless Papa!

“ I remember from back in the day, my grandfather giving me my "domingo" every time I would bump into him or when visiting on weekends. On the occasions when my sisters were not present, he would say "here is $1 for you, $1 for your sister Sandra, and $1 for your sister Mari."

Well, I must confess and say that I kept $2 for myself and tell my sisters that my grandfather had sent them $1 which was to be split between them.
