

Danny Lee Shaw

July 10, 1959 - December 27, 2018

Danny Lee Shaw was born on July 10, 1959 to Curtis and Annie (nee Burkett) Shaw in Hattiesburg, Mississippi. As a young boy, Danny came to Joliet, Illinois with his family. Danny was a laborer in construction and was an avid fisherman, loved camping and liked all kinds of sports. One thing that could be said about Danny, is that he really knew the bible. On New Year's Eve in 1999, he met the love of his life, Margaret Davis, through his sister-in-law, Sue. They shared their life together ever since.

Danny was called to be one of God's angels on December 27, 2018.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Curtis and Annie Shaw; one sister, Annie McNair; two brothers, James and Jeffery Shaw; and two nieces, Tiffany Talley and Yolanda Ruffin.

Danny leaves to cherish his memories to his loving companion for 20 years, Margaret Davis, and her children, Steven, Billy and Jenna; three brothers, Anthony (Debra) Shaw of Hattiesburg, MS, David (Gabby) Shaw of New Orleans, LA, and Tyrone (Sue) Shaw of Gulfport, MS; four sisters, Ursula Lawton of Gulfport, MS, Angela (Travis) Tanner of Joliet, IL, Chantel (Tony) Simmons of Gulfport, MS, and Felicia Shaw of Joliet, IL; and a host of step-brothers and step-sisters. Danny also leaves behind his second family, Todd and Rosie Schroll.

“ I am so deeply sorry for your loss. I have so many memories, mostly funny ones of Danny. He was an awesome man and he was so kind and loving and giving. I know he loves Jesus and he is totally healed in heaven with no more pain, tears, suffering! Probably playing basketball which I had the honor of playing Bball with him and Tim when I was a teenager. He was over at our house lots usually hanging out with my brothers when we were all growing up and at church. I wish we had stayed in touch more. Gone for now Dan but never forgotten. Praying for all your loved ones and you had a lot! Love DeeDee

“ I first met Danny at Wendys when I was 18 years old when he and Bill started employment there. Danny, you have always been so good to my husband Bill, our kids and myself. You always knew how to make people laugh and give your best advice when needed. We will always cherish and hold deep within our heart all the wonderful memories that we have with you. Danny, by the way, our daughter says that you will always be considered her grandpa!! I will not say goodbye but I will say see you later Danny, until we all meet again in paradise!!

“ When I first met Danny I was about 20 , so needless to say I have known him about 20 years and we had a bit of a rocky start as my mom had just gotten a divorce from my dad but like most he worked his magic and I realized that he was an amazing person, there were times when we would sit and play ps1 at my house or with Dennis and when you did something amazing in the game he looked astonished and would often say I didn't know that was possible you just couldn't help but laugh specially when he got his unique Danny look on his face that's the only way I know how to describe his specific look but I think my most memorable memory is when me and Danny would get into one of our sports "discussions " that would ultimately end up with no one being right and no one being wrong lol, that's what I will miss the most with Danny gone I don't think I will ever find anyone that knew as much about sports as I do. Danny make sure you help Jesus take care of Jenny and my 3 kids up in heaven until we meet again teach them right, Bill, From all of us down here in Springfield, il

“ Wow just wow I can't believe u are gone. What can I say about Uncle Danny expect he was a great man. I was married to Stacy for a while and I just wanna say I loved this man right here. He used to come to our house when we lived in housing. I got to learn a lot about him over the years and yes he was one of the most awesome guys u could ever meet from being one that would give u the shirt off his back. If he only had a few dollars and me or Stacy needed it we had it. I will forever miss u and love u.

“ On December 27th 2018 I received one of the hardest phone calls I've ever gotten in my life my uncle my dad's best friend my second father Danny Lee Shaw passed away call me selfish but yes I cried like a baby but Lord knows how much pain he was in and the Lord called for him for that reason 🥺 now let me tell you something about Danny he's been in our family for as long as I can remember.. he knows my grandmother and all my uncles and aunts and even told me he was welcome in my grandmother's home anytime. he taught me how to ride a bike him and my father of course dave hernandez they taught me how to dribble a basketball.. I remember the 3 peat them watching the Bulls games we were all screaming and yelling at the TV.. he's probably screaming from heaven about how well the Bears did this season.. my dad, my Uncle Tim, my uncle Todd, and him would play basketball at Cunningham School until the police would come kick them all out.. him and my dad helped me catch my first fish yes I almost got pulled in the Mississippi River with my Mickey Mouse Pole thank God men were there to grab it and save me they swore it was a shark LOL.. this man right here he was original he would give you the shirt off his back if you needed it.. he was one of the funniest, kindest, sweetest, loving, people I've ever met.. he gave the best advise and he was very blunt about it too 😊 now I haven't posted anything on Facebook because I wanted to allow his family time to grieve but you know what he's my family too this man right here walked my sister down the aisle and gave her away in my dad's place.. he's been at most of my family parties and cookouts.. every time I would go to visit my Tia Rosey Schroll and uncle Todd he would be right there sitting on the couch always laughing and having a good time.. he really loved all my cousins just the same he was Uncle Danny. yes he could even dance to Mexican music he loved music of all genres and was the life of every party.. Heaven really gained an angel when he arrived.. Rest in paradise uncle Danny Lee shaw
Danny Shaw

thank you for helping raise me thank you for all our long talks for giving me the best advice and for loving my daughter anaya and for being uncle Danny I love you and I miss you and I'm sorry I didn't get to stop by and bring you your Christmas cookies . I pray you okay up there and you're not in any more pain I love you and I'll see you soon until we meet again 🥺

Tricia Hernandez - January 10, 2019 at 02:17 AM

“ This is Anaya Medina Danny's little princess I hope you're in a better place and you're not in any more pain I miss you so much uncle Danny while you're up there can you after my little brother I love you thanks for all the advice you gave me and my mom I miss you

Tricia Hernandez - January 10, 2019 at 02:13 AM

“ Danny will be missed. I have known Danny for as long as I have been married to Jenna. Many years of laughs, card games, holidays etc. We were like family. Most of all he was always good with my son from the day he was born and he will miss Danny terribly. Much love, and may God keep you in his arms.

“ Gabrielle Bolden lit a candle in memory of Danny Lee Shaw

Gabrielle Bolden - January 09, 2019 at 09:13 PM

“ He was the sweetest man. Kind and loving and we became more than brother and sister in law he became one of my dearest friends. Rest like the King you are love you.

Gabrielle Bolden - January 09, 2019 at 09:11 PM

“ I remember when we first met you! You were one of the funniest people we have ever met! And had the bounce of tigger from whinnie the Pooh! That sir is when we named you “Twinkle toes”! We all love and miss you so much! Continue to watch over Margie and we will try to keep her as strong as we can through all this! You will be truly missed sir! Love the Vigil Family! You are forever in our hearts and memories.

Panchy Vigil - January 07, 2019 at 07:29 PM

Danny i will miss you my friend i have no body to argue with no more...rest in heaven until we meet again ...margie will be ok i will continue to be around her .
