In Loving Memory of Dianna Black

Sunrise: May 3, 1953 Sunset: March 3, 2026

Dianna Faye Black was born May 3, 1953, in Wabbaseka, Arkansas, to the late Mary (Rice) Washington and the late Joe Black. She peacefully departed this life leaving a legacy of love, faith and cherished memories on March 3, 2026.

Dianna graduated from John Marshall High School, Chicago, IL, and attended Northern Illinois University and obtained her Bachelor's Degree from Chicago State University. Dianna was a manager for Zayre's and Omni Department stores for ten years. She retired with distinction as an Assistant Manager for the Department of Health and Human Services, for the State of Illinois, Child Support Division, for Kane and DuPage Counties, in 2017. She had a great love and joy for travel, cruises, soul food and Mexican food.

Dianna's love and unwavering dedication to her family and friends will forever be remembered through the laughter and memories that will remain with us always and in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

Dianna was preceded in death by her loving stepfather, Lloyd Washington, Sr. She put on Christ at an early age. She was a beautiful mother, sister, daughter, niece, cousin and friend who will be deeply missed.

Dianna leaves to cherish her memory: one daughter, Nastassia Smith of Bolingbrook, IL; two sisters, Brenda C. Davis of Bolingbrook, IL and Chantell

(Terrence) Pearce of Joliet, IL; one brother, Lloyd (Shawona) Washington, Jr. of Bolingbrook, IL She's also survived by one niece and four nephews, one great niece and nephew, and a host of special cousins, other relatives and friends.
