“ i miss my brother more than anything in the world right now. he was supposed to be part of a quinceañera before he dyed but god had other plans. he loved playing soccer, he'd often invite me to play soccer with him since i didn't get out of the house a lot. he was so selfless always thought of others before himself. such a kind hearted person deserved to go to heaven, this world wasn't good enough for him so god had to take him to his kingdom of love. i will always appreciate and cherish the little time we had together. ❤️

“ This little guy barely started driving. I don't know what he could have done, but if the schools would've been kept open, he would still be here getting his driver's license.
