“ Our mom goal was, for all her children to graduate from high school. In my 40s, mom still had our senior high school pictures up on the wall or on a table, in the living room. I told her I would make a family slide show so she could see the senior pictures at any time, if she ever decided to take them down. She said the pictures reminded her, that she fulfilled a goal.. Not sure how many years it took for her to finally take them down.... Since this page is dedicated to mom, I decided to share pictures from each of her children's senior year, from the slide show I made for our mom... I'm praying my siblings will be okay with me sharing them....

“ Mom started when we became adults to do something special on our birthdays.... A card, money, and out to dinner. Our parents were a little tight with money, so I was wondering how they took 4 daughters out to dinner in June and me in July. Until they picked a new place ask for my ID... Free dinner. Lol. It was still very sweet of them... Much love.... I still have many of the cards my parents gave me for my birthdays..... Your daughter Veda
