“ Lisa

It's been a couple of weeks now since you passed and my heart is still filled with so much sadness sis. I will miss you so much. It was good to see you that Wednesday afternoon I wish covid wasn't around to go see you more at the hospital. You were one of the good ones that when someone was in trouble you tried your best to help them. You helped me when I was growing up so much along with Froylan. Then you took me and Dawn at the beginning of our relationship even if you had no room you still took us in. Now your an angel in heaven and our guardian angel watching over your family looking down on us. Your home now because your job here was done and your pain free. Until we see each other again sis you will be in my heart always.

Love you

Your brother

Abel
