

Ernesto Delgado Dueñas

July 30, 1988 - November 19, 2025

Ernesto went to sleep and passed peacefully while holding his beloved wife's hand on Wednesday, November 19th, 2025 at the age of 37. Ernesto Delgado Dueñas was born on July 30th, 1988 in Zacatecas, Mexico and came to this country when he was 14 and lived in Texas before moving to Joliet, Illinois.

Ernesto battled sarcoma ,an aggressive cancer, for over a year. He fought hard and tried his best to stay strong and positive for his family. He put his faith in God to help him persevere and see this fight to the end. He was a diligent worker, working construction to provide for his family until he no longer had the strength to do so. He loved his children and wife and his dog, Oso and his cat Nieves. He used all his spare time for his family. He liked to cook with his wife and spend dinner time with his family. He loved eating Chinese buffet with his family, watching movies and playing video games with his kids. Ernesto will be deeply missed by everyone who was blessed to have known him.

Ernesto is preceded in death by his parents Martha Dueña Martinez, Jesus Delgado Mercado, and brother Jesus Delgado.

He is survived by his beloved wife of four years, Lorena Garcia, His son Nestor Gabriel Delgado and his daughter Jade Sarai Garcia. Ernesto is also survived by his sisters, Aleja Delgado, Rosa Delgado, Monica Delgado, Velia

Delgado, Maria de Jesus Delgado, Lucila Delgado, Josefa Delgado, Maria Delgado. And also by his brothers, Velso Delgado, Salomon Delgado, Virgilio Delgado, Isabel Delgado, and Noe Delgado.

In lieu of flowers, it is kindly requested memorial donations be made for Ernesto's funeral services. To make a donation for Ernesto please call 815-774-9220.
