

Francisco Chavez

October 4, 1942 - February 18, 2025

Francisco Chavez, loving husband, father, Abuelo and friend passed away on February 18th, 2025 in Joliet, Illinois at the age of 82. Francisco was a man of deep faith and unwavering devotion. He faced life's challenges with resilience and found strength in his walk with Christ. His faith guided him through hardships, and he placed his trust fully in Jesus Christ. Born on October 4th, 1942 in Mexico, Francisco has always been known for his selflessness, and always putting others before himself. He built a strong united family, serving as an extraordinary example of love and dedication. To those who knew him, he was more than just a loved one—he was a source of strength and inspiration. His legacy of faith and kindness will continue to live on in the hearts of those who were blessed to know him. May his memory bring comfort and peace to all who mourn his passing.
