I Love You Mom I always did even though we never told each other I know you loved me too. I miss you so much Mama Is so very hard to move on with life with you not here. You been my rock For me to help me with any problems I ever had. I wish so bad you were here with me and my kids. I'm sorry for all the disappointments in my life that you didnt like. I truly wish I could of done things differently when I was younger. I know you are happy in Heaven with Pete, our dog Pee Wee, Your Mom and Dad, Brothers and Sisters. I promise I will be the best man I can be So I can join you in Heaven one day. Please help me and give me the strength to move on and not hurt so much. Also please protect my Sons, Grandchildren and other Family and Friends from all harm always. Love your only Son, Sid “ Madrina, I will always love you!! I have great memories of you that will live with me forever in my heart. I am who am because of you and I thank you for it!!! I have nothing but ALL good and funny memories of us. I'll never forget how I would always walked your dog Wee-Wee. Well, one day Wee-Wee mistake my skinny little leg for the stop sign and peed on my leg. Madrina you laughed so hard - I thought you going to pee yourself.

I also remember how you loved for me to message your back. I will never forget the one time you came to visit us (we were home alone-many, many moons ago) and my sister had burn the bread in the toaster- smoke ever where. The look on your face was priceless. Jeff, also has great memories of you too. Jeff & I talk about it all the time (and now we laugh about it) when we were at a party and you had just met me husband. I had left him with you so that you had someone to talk- I was busy at the party with guest. Jeff didn't know much about you. Jeff trying to start a conversations, but went sideways right away. Jeff had asked you what part of Mexico you were from, and if Carmen was your daughter. You had replied to "WHAT" I think you gave him an ear full- in a good way. Jeff just got up and left, with a smile and thought, "Oh boy!" He felt he had stuck his foot in his month long enough- too funny!! I'm glad that you're finally with Pedro. Please give Padrino a BIG hug from us.

Someday we'll all be together again. Forever in my HEART!!!

“ Providence High School Class of 1960 remembers Lupe and expresses sympathy to her son and his family at this time. She was a good classmate and the kindest person we remember from school. Some of us saw Lupe over the years, and she always had that smile. We'll think of her often.
