

Jacqueline Ophelia Banks

April 1, 1931 - December 27, 2011

Banks, Jacqueline O. (nee Cole)

Age 80 passed away peacefully at her home surrounded by family and friends on Tuesday, December 27, 2011 after a brief battle with brain cancer. "Jackie" was a lifelong resident of Joliet, IL born (612 S. Joliet St.) on April 1, 1931.

Preceded in death by her husband of 55 years James H. Banks, Sr., her parents; also all of her siblings: Francis, Vera, Lillie Mae, Mary Elizabeth, Anna, Juliet, Joseph Houston, Nelson, Reginald, Richard and James.

Jacqueline is survived by her son, James H. (Debra) Banks, Jr., and daughters: Iris (Donald) Jones, Mary (Anthony) Grant, and Michele (Michael) Richards; fifteen grandchildren, fourteen great grandchildren; one brother-in-law, Thomas Baker, four sisters-in-laws: Robertine Cole, Arlena Miller, Fannie Mae Baker, and Maude Baker; numerous nieces, nephews and a host of friends.

Jacqueline was a devoted wife and loving mother. She had a very outgoing personality. She always said what was on her mind. On June 30, 1968 she dedicated her life to Jehovah God. She enjoyed sharing her faith with others and entered the full time ministry in September 1995. She was faithful to the end.

“Jackie” was cremated in accordance to her wishes.

“ Jackie had insurance with our office (State Farm James Elberts) we always enjoyed having her come in and chat with us. She was a very special lady and we will miss her. Even though we have not seen in for several years since Jim passed away in 2001, I have fond memories of our little talks. Our thoughts and prayers will be with each of you as you honor your Mom. May she remain in your hearts forever,. Sincerely, Darlene Elberts Fagan
