My heart broke a little more today when I heard my sisters speech. I just wanted to hug her and tell her everything would be OK. My mother too. Although I couldn't be there in person, it was so heart felt and I'm so proud of her strength. My father is at peace now. He is with his parents who he always talked about and loved dearly, his only brother too and other loved ones. I pray for strength and peace during this time and I appreciate all the family and friends who were there and those attended. I ask that everyone hold close the ones you love, for we are not promised another day. Fly high, Papi. 🕊️
