“ Joaquin was like an uncle to me growing up. He let me borrow his car and introduced me to spanish rock. He took me to my first Pink Floyd concert and gave me great advice. He was kind and giving. Rest In Peace Joaquin

To my wonderful uncle, Joaquin. I love you. You never forgot my birthday and you always made me feel special. I'm happy that we got to rekindle our relationship these past 5 years. I'm happy I got to visit you and Norma a few years ago. I always looked forward to catching up. I love your laugh. I loved that we would talk for hours on the phone talking about los tigres, the concerts you went to when you were younger, when you went to Vegas, and how cold it is in Chicago in the winter. You would always answer the phone and say, "Heyy, what's up Sammie." I am going to miss you so much. Only God knows why things happen the way they do and I wish I had more time to spend with you. But I know you fought as hard as you could and I know you are resting now. Thank you for loving me and showing me what it feels like to have such an amazing uncle. I love you so much. I didn't get to tell you this but if I have a boy of my own in the future, I will name him after you. Until we meet again. Rest in peace.
