

Jose "Joe" Berrios

November 9, 1946 - June 23, 2021

Jose R. Berrios, AKA "Lope or Joe"

Age 74, went to be with the Lord on Wednesday June 23, 2021; he passed very peacefully in his loving home surrounded by his family, friends, and neighbors. Born November 9, 1946 in Puerto Rico, becoming a lifelong resident of Crest Hill, IL.

For the past 2 years Jose fought a courageous battle against cancer, with such strength, determination, and dignity, never giving up. He faced this disease head on. Jose carried faith in his heart and put his trust in God, who kept him fighting. Jose will always be remembered as a great and honorable man, He is our HERO. Although retired, Jose continued to stay busy and maintained an active lifestyle. He was a master and jack of all trades. He loved his many dogs and cats. We all know how he loved the Bears and watching Sunday Football. He enjoyed his Sci-fi movies and watching his Superman movies over and over again. He enjoyed listening to classical and Christian music. Jose was a very smart and very funny man, everyone and anyone who met him loved his personality.

He was a loving husband survived by his loving life partner, Yolanda Miranda of 30 years, devoted father to his three children: Analucia (Bewi), Jorge (Puma), Isabel (Punky), and his six grandchildren, his stepson Antonio Miranda; his sister Ada Berrios, and brother Adonis (Pete) Berrios. He will be sorely missed, however we know he is now at peace in paradise with Jesus Christ.
