“ Almost three months and still hurting. This morning I found an e-mail that Julio sent me on november 3, 2011. I cried again. Sometimes I think that miss the loved ones who have gone to the abode of Lord, is a little selfish. But I have to accept it, I would rather to have him here with us. Love you sweetie and miss you a lot. Your cousin Gina.

“ Julio, tu fuiste una persona maravillosa y me siento afortunada de haberte conocido. Tu inteligencia y pasion para hacer realidad tus metas eran dignas de admirar. Hoy me siento tan trizte porque ya no estes mas entre nosotros, y mas aun cuando hasta hace poco empeze a notar la ausencia de tus mensajes llenos de sabiduria y diversion. Empeze a buscarte y me encuentro con esta noticia tan dolorosa. Nunca te lo dije, pero fuiste alguien muy especial y espero que desde el cielo y al lado de Dios estes con nosotros. Te extrañare mushisimo y solo me queda expresar mi mas sentido pesame a tu familia. Perdona la ortografia porque se que tu eras muy meticulouso con esto era parte de ti. Un gran adios.....

“ Julio always had a positive outlook and a kind word for everyone. He greeted me every time he walked through the PHS Media Center. He was so excited when he talked about spending a holiday in Columbia and being able to see friends.

Julio, we will meet again. Rest peacefully in the arms of our Lord.

My sincere sympathy to friends and relatives of this truly beautiful man.

“ Julio was not only a very dear friend, he was a mentor, a brother and someone you could rely on, no matter what. I remember playing football in college in Mexico City and Julio was my coach. He never gave up on me or any of my other teammates. He never yelled at me, even when I messed up a play. He always was motivating us in a positive way. His way. Even after college, we kept in touch and he never changed. He was always funny and always trying to make you feel good. I am forever indebted to him for teaching me to be a good, kind and humble person. Julio. Thank you so much for being you, and a brother to me and so many others. God bless you.

“ Julio was such a positive person to talk to at PHS, never in a bad mood, always asking how everyone was. I remember seeing him in the staff room, listening to his music, making his copies, with a smile on his face! He will truly be missed.

“ He was always pleasant, smiled and said "Hello" when I would see him at Plainfield Central High School. I remember at lunch in the cafeteria he would eat a bowl of fresh fruit he'd bring from home. My thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends. Machele Green

“ I was very fortunate to have the opportunity to work with such a wonderful, mild-tempered individual. Julio was always in a good mood and had a wonderful smile to greet me almost every morning because we always seemed to pull into the parking lot at Central H.S. at the same time. I remember one weekend he flew to Colombia just to sign some papers and to visit friends and go salsa dancing and I said, "Wow!" How fortunate he was to be a world traveller!

I will dearly miss him, but I know there is the hope of the resurrection that Jesus spoke about at John 5:28,29. Soon the tears that I have shed for so many of my loved ones and for Julio will be a distant memory because Revelation 21:4 reads " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." This is a difficult time for all who knew Julio, but do not forget the power of prayer has because Jehovah God knows are pain and he is always ready to help when we approach him in prayer. Jeremiah 29:11,12 have always been of comfort to me and I hope for your family as well. the scripture reads, "11 "For I myself well know the thoughts that I am thinking toward YOU,' is the utterance of Jehovah, 'thoughts of peace, and not of calamity, to give YOU a future and a hope. 12 And YOU will certainly call me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to YOU.'

It will take time to pass through this difficult moment, but remember the good times and do not dwell on the fact tht he is no longer with us at this moment. Keep him alive with your positive memories.

Con cariño,
