“ I had a dream of my big brother , we were sitting next to a pond together. He handed me a bright blue fish that somehow was swimming in the puddle of his hands. It was a beautiful fish. Blue fish are a meaning of positive thoughts or think positive. I love you Justin. Your little brother Lee 🙏💙

“ One of my all-time favorite memories, ever, out of everything in my life, is when you saw E.T. for the first time. You had the greatest reaction! My heart is in a million pieces. I love you so much. I'm sure you're playing the best video games and defeating every chess Grandmaster you face. Until we meet again, Justin. You'll always hold a special place in my heart. I miss you, buddy.

PS

His smile and laughter will surely be missed! Justin was a great person and was always so very polite and understanding to me! He was such a great comfort to me during a very difficult time I was forced to go through. I survived thanks to him and others! He was always so respectful to me and such a great help! I am saddened and my heart goes out to the family! My prayers with the family and I smile back to you Justin! Patti Sockness we love you patti and thank you my dear friend, my son also suffered at being disposed of after giving his blood sweat and tears believing one day he would be a heavy machine operator ! instead after reading his yr long journal i read his pain he went through working for a man who destroyed him, he went down hill after putting half his life into a company that used him ! the ordasity to comment on my sons wall blew me away,
