

Laymon Canady Jr

December 18, 1931 - December 9, 2018

Laymon Canady Jr “Bubba” was born on December 18, 1931 in Lagrange, Georgia to the late Laymon Canady Sr. and Ollie Price Canady.

Laymon was ranked as PFC in the United States Army, in which he served four years and was a veteran of the Korean War. In 1954, he was married to the late Mercedes Mallory and had one daughter, Debra. He had retired from Chicago Housing Authority and Chicago Board of Education, where he worked for over twenty five years. Laymon had enjoyed reading and fishing in his free time.

Laymon had a companion, Pearlina Gipson, who preceded him in death.

The Lord called him home on December 9, 2018 at Jesse Brown Veteran’s Affair Hospital in Chicago, Illinois.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Laymon Canady Sr. and Ollie Price Canady; brother, Lewis Price Canady; ex-wife, Mercedes Mallory; and companion, Pearlina Gipson. Laymon leaves memories to be cherished by his daughter Debra (Steven) Burton of Chicago; two grandsons, Marlon L. Canady and Larry J. Davis, both of Chicago; great-granddaughter, Peyton J. Canady; brother, Darryl (Sharon) Canady; sister, Colleen (Jerome) Ratliffe; and one niece, Tanya Canady of Washington DC.
