“ Jen and Liz, I am so sorry for your loss. I remember your mom curling my hair in your Grandma's kitchen before school when we were in jr high. She always wanted you girls to have everything, and was fiercely protective of you. She loved you dearly. She had a kind heart. I remember when Kimmy was a baby she'd say "just a quick change in the park!" when she needed her diaper changed. She will be missed. May God bless you all - "Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted." Matthew 5:4
