Age 77, after many years of fighting Parkinson's and Alzheimer's dementia, Linda passed away peacefully with family by her side. Born in Marion, IN, and raised in Jonesboro, IN, where she graduated high school.

Linda was a strong, independent, and fearless woman who loved her family and those dear to her beyond measure. She was a devoted Catholic, who lived a full and happy life. A sergeant in the US Air Force where she met her husband Bob while stationed in Colorado Springs, CO. She also was a civilian administrative assistant to many military officers for many years. She was a loving and proud mother who was always there for her two boys. Her chocolate chip cookies, caramel corn, chocolate pudding pie and aloha cheese ball were family favorites. During retirement, she enjoyed traveling the world with her husband, spending time with her family and friends, shopping and going to the movies every week with her husband.

Preceded in death by her parents, James and Ruth (nee Watson) Booker; one sister Caroline Wilson and one brother Jim Booker.

Survived by her loving husband of 52 years, Robert Fiebig Jr.; Devoted mother to, Robert Fiebig III (Marie) and Ty Fiebig (Audra); six grandchildren, Austin Blackburn (Shanna), Katie, Paige, Courtney, Colette and Edison Fiebig; three great-grandchildren, Riley, Austin Jr. and Marley Blackburn. We met Bob and Linda at Mt Home AFB where they moved in across the street from us in 1980 on Larch street. My wife brought them a lasagna in a casserole dish the night they arrived. The next day we found out Bob was my boss as the 366 Civil Engineering Squadron. Linda was such a good person. She was at the hospital when our first baby arrived. She also babysat for us one night a few months later and took our daughter jessica to her first Catholic mass while we were out. We are Methodists but Linda wanted to show her off. Col Fiebig was able to get me my next and best job after MHAFB : a teaching gig at AFIT. My family owes yours a debt of gratitude. I'm sorry for the late note. I didn't know Linda passed away til yesterday. May she Rest in peace.

“Aunt Linda was always there for all the important parts of my life, cheering me on. She was also very thoughtful towards me. I can remember getting hand-picked gifts from 10000's of miles away from her and Uncle Robert. One year she sent me a Hawaiian Barbie for my birthday that was very unique and special to me. She will be missed here, but I know she is with Jesus and all of her faithfully departed family and friends now. ❤️ 🙏

“ Sincere condolences to all Fiebig family members. Bob, please know that I will miss her too.

I met Linda in 1964 in Washington, DC. All the civil service Hoosiers stuck together and ruled the Evange where we lived. Great times without a doubt. We visited while stationed in Colorado Springs, CO and at our Germany assignments. We were also fortunate to be able to enjoy many get-togethers in Florida following retirement.

No pain now Booker-T. "Dancing in the Streets" of heaven is definitely encouraged. You and Burbank will have a blast with the "do you remembers..." I will miss you, my friend. Always in my heart,

*Pam "Pougs" Hartmann
