In Loving Memory of
Manuel “El Morro Meño” Murillo Gonzalez

With profound sadness, we announce the passing of our beloved husband, father, and grandfather, Manuel Murillo Gonzalez—affectionately known as “El Morro” and “Meño.” He passed away peacefully on April 16, 2025, at the age of 69, surrounded by his loving family.

Manuel will be remembered for his selflessness and unwavering dedication to others. A humble man, he lived a life of hard work, pride and quiet strength. He found joy in the simple things, watching Storage Wars, spending time with his loved ones and visiting his cherished hometown of Manuel Doblado, GTO MX.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Priciliano and Primitiva Murillo Gonzalez; his sister, Guadalupe (Chuy) and his brother, Abel Murillo Gonzalez.

Manuel is survived by his devoted wife of 39 years, Ma. Magdalena; his loving children, Daisy Lopez, Luis and Leonardo Murillo. He was a proud grandfather to Kristian and Annalize Lopez. He is also survived by his siblings, Celerina, Leticia, Cesaria, and Emilio, along with many extended family members and friends. All will miss him deeply.
