

Maria Pilar Alonzo

September 25, 1956 - November 28, 2024

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Maria Pilar Alonzo, who passed away on November 28th, 2024, at the age of 68. Maria was born on September 25th, 1956 in Joliet, Illinois, and was the first-born of 11 siblings. She spent most of her career working with BMO Harris, where she earned the respect of her colleagues and was known for her dedication and hard work. Maria was known for her no-nonsense, straightforward personality. She was never afraid to speak her mind and didn't hesitate to stand up for herself or her loved ones. Her strength, honesty, and directness made her a powerful presence in every room she entered. Maria's greatest pride and joy were her two sons and watching her two granddaughters grow up. Family was at the center of her life, and she was deeply loved by those who knew her. Maria is survived by her loving husband Guillermo Alonzo, her sons: Aaron Alonzo, Adam Alonzo (Sanjuana), and granddaughters Cataleia and Metzli. She is also survived by multiple brothers, sisters, nieces, and nephews, who will miss her dearly.

She is preceded in death by her father Antonio Cornejo, her mother, Sanjuana Cornejo, and her brother, Julio Cornejo. Maria will be dearly missed by her husband, children, grandchildren, siblings, nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends.
