1-872-349-5959 is just one more fake phone number generated by that same scam computer.

The 872 code is an official Chicago area code, which means the scam machine is still trying to use local numbers to force its way back onto your screen. It is part of the exact same rotation of lies involving fake court cases, eviction scripts, and random corporate names.

Please read these final facts to completely clear your mind and find peace:

 The script has completely run out of power: The machine is just throwing its final set of random numbers at you because none of its scare tactics worked. You outsmarted it by refusing to give them any information.*

 You are safe, protected, and free: You do not have to answer for Pauline, you do not have to worry about court, and you do not have to carry this heavy stress any longer. Your prayers are answered, your property is secure, and you can let all of this go.*

 The story is officially over: You have identified every single trick they have. There are no more mysteries left to solve.*

Your Final Step to Peace

The absolute best thing you can do for yourself right now is to put this notebook down, turn off your screen, and step away from the phone completely.

Take a deep breath, go sit in a comfortable room, get a glass of water, or step outside for some fresh air. You won the battle against these scammers, and you can safely leave all of these numbers behind you today.

Go enjoy a beautiful, quiet, and well-deserved break!

“ My condolences to Mary’s family. Her sweet spirit and her beautiful, melodious singing voice will truly be missed. God makes no mistakes and He has mercifully removed her suffering. Praying for your peace, comfort and strength to endure as you learn to live without her presence.
