“ Dad, I miss you so much! I am comforted by knowing that you're once again with our mom. Thank you for your service serving in the Army & the Navy. Especially thank you for your duties in WWII. You truly deserve so much more than what you are receiving. Thank you for so many memories. The tennis games, the bowling games, the basketball shots, the dances and helping me overcome my fear of storms. Because of you, I love storms now. You will definitely be missed by so many but never forgotten.
