“ Captain "Chepito" Moscas or just my favorite brother Oscar... I still can't believe you have gone to a better place... I wish I could of spent more time with you and saw how great and unique of a person you truly where sooner 😭 you will always be in my heart and soul... I have learned the true meaning of love and how important family is thanks to you... till we meet again in paradise and don't forget to save me my VIP Ticket 🍷

Celia Linda Salazar - February 06, 2019 at 09:47 PM

“ Condolences being sent to the family and close friends. I only knew Oscar from back in the late '70s from the Tejano dances held at The Pan America on Jefferson Street and various quinceanera parties.
Respectfully,

“ Oscar, you always made me laugh, you always wanted to jam, and you were always filled with joy. I loved your passion for music and for fellowship. It was always a treat to be playing when you sat in and I really appreciated when you invited me to your home and introduced me to your family. Simply said my friend, you are all heart...i'll see you again...randy d.

“ We are so saddened to hear of Oscar's passing. He has many friends in Venice and Santa Monica, his smile and laugh cheered us whenever he came around. He loved music so much and always brought that joy to playing with us. We will miss him dearly. Will send details of LA memorial services when we get over our shock.

“Oscar was a good friend. He drove me crazy but I loved him. I knew him before and after his injury. He was a strong percussionist who loved the groove. You can see him in some in these youtube videos from a long time ago.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bWc1hFSvGaU>

This 2nd piece song starts at 1:54 I have a funny intro at the start.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rdu3wL5skXo>

Here's another with a little girl next to him. It starts at 10 seconds in.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nb1pQhYNVF0>

Oscar wrestled with his issues too in his early days, but he always loved music and he loved to play.

After his injury and his lifelong struggle to recover he had a new love, his love for the Lord and his kingdom. His heart was for good. Every time I saw him he talked about his dream was to create a youth center for his community. He had nutty dreams too, of playing in Santana's band. He would drive me crazy with that idea but I still loved him and tried to provide playing opportunities for him when I could.

Well he's playing with some better players than Santana now in a restored body. I will miss his wild solos, his crazy dreams, his silly sense of humor and his big-hearted smile. The kingdom here on earth will miss him and I will very much miss him.
