“ Working with robert changed my life. He had such great words to say. His advice he has always giving me stays in my head everyday at work. "Work to impress yourself. Not others. If you believe your doing a good job, than you are." He will be greatly missed. R.I.P Robert

“ I remember the first day I met Robert I was dating my ex wife, and we went to his brother rubens house whom I also met for the first time that day. I didn't have a lot of friends, there was a lot of people over that day I believe it was the summer of 2007. my back was hurting so I sat down on the couch and noticed a guy next to me it was Robert. there was a song that came on the radio it was j.geils band. centerfold. Robert said he liked that song so we started talking about music and I would of never believed that he was into the Beatles and rock and roll. he turned out to be a really nice guy and I really enjoyed when did see each other, we probably saw each other here and there for the next 4 years. we enjoyed saying lines from movies, TV shows, talking about music, and drinking coffee. he met a ex girlfriend carri bricco at my wedding in 2009 and moved in with her, in 2011 I moved in with Robert and carri for 3 months, and enjoyed the time I spent with rob because he was a friend I could always count on. when I heard about Roberts past growing up my reaction was" no way, this guy"! but, he's such a nice guy. my condolences to robs family, and friends. he will be missed but never forgotten, until we meet again . p.s. how's john Lennon and 2pac?

“ *Don't stand by my grave and weep,
For I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glint of snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn's rain.
When you awaken in the morning, hush.
For I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circle flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand by my grave and cry.
I am not there, I did not die..... I remember the night when i met him thru the phone .. he was talking to his sis/bestfriend alicia who at the time was my partner .. man oh man how u made me laugh i almost peed on myself that night . Lol . My stomach was hurting so bad cuz i couldnt stop laughin.. i wish i couldve had the chance to have met him in person. But we shall meet again someday . Robert Treviño Jr. We you will be greatly missed by everyone we love u ...*

“ I remember the first night we met last July like it was yesterday. You saw me from across the room and said you had to talk to me despite your brother kidding you saying I would never give you the time of day. We small talked and you shyly asked for my phone number. From that day forward we instantly became good friends and my friends fell in love with you. I was stubborn and had my guard up but you wouldn't give up on me. Eventually I let you in and we got closer. It was impossible not to smile and laugh around you. You always had a cheerful and playful disposition. I remember when you showed up at my house wearing a sombrero. Also all the times you went on your little laughing fits for 20 min straight. You brought so much warmth, happiness, and love into life you could never be forgotten. Thanks to you we shared a lovely first Valentines day together that I will always remember. Everyone in my life adores you and saw how happy we made each other. My favorite times with you were spent watching you with your family I know you lived to make them laugh and loved them very much. I will never forget you and all the rest of my memories until we meet again. I have this love forever in my heart to cherish and remember you by. Thank you <3

“ I met Rob at work, and even though I haven't known him long, he touched my life. He was so easy to talk to and joke around with, and I really appreciated his perspective on life and the positive attitude he had towards other people. He thought and felt deeply and shared that passion with all the people around him. He used to go out to his car at lunch time and pray, and I always really admired and respected how dedicated he was to his faith. RIP Rob, you were a light in the world.
