In Loving Memory of Rose M. Scheidt

January 1, 1932 - July 23, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Rose M. Scheidt, age 93, who left us peacefully on July 23, 2025, surrounded by her loving family. Born in Joliet, Illinois, Rose was a cherished soul known for her unparalleled kindness and warmth.

Throughout her life, she touched the hearts of many, earning the reputation of a saint. Her famous baking, especially her delightful "Roshky" cookies, brought joy to all who knew her. She was a lover of dance, especially the polka. An avid fan of "Wheel of Fortune," and she enjoyed solving puzzles. Known affectionately as Ma or Grandma, she was a guiding light for her family and friends. Her legacy of love and kindness will carry on in the hearts of all who knew her.

Rose is preceded in death by her beloved husband of 71 years, Charles Scheidt, her parents and many siblings, and four sons: Charles H. Scheidt Jr., Michael Scheidt, Gerald Scheidt and Richard Scheidt.

She is survived by her loving sons, Russell, Mark, Timothy Scheidt. She leaves behind a cherished legacy as a grandmother to over 30 grandkids, great-grandkids, and great-great-grandchildren. She will be missed dearly, but her spirit will continue to shine brightly in our memories
