“ A few years ago I went back to Joliet to say my final goodbyes to another loving tia of ours and my tia Silvina and tío Jose welcomed my dad and I into their loving home. Needless to say that my tia Silvina cooked so much food and offered us everything possible. I think we spent most of the time in her kitchen watching her cook and enjoying her delicious meals. Her face beamed when she talked about her family. During such a difficult time my tia Silvina was able to bring calmness and make me feel better with just her smile and kind words. Those few days at her home will be memories that I will cherish forever. Our thoughts and prayers are with our tío Jose, our cousins and their families
