

Tufuhene Anlimah Kojo Anaman

November 12, 2001 - April 9, 2021

Tufuhene Anlimah Kojo Anaman, better known as Kojo, went to be with the Lord on Friday April 9th 2021, at the age of 19. Kojo was born on November 12, 2001 in Joliet, Illinois to Augustine and Charmain Anaman. As a baby Kojo, smiled and laughed very much. He loved watching his favorite cartoon "Bob the Builder", and "Pokemon". He also loved to spend time writing raps, singing, and playing basketball with his brother. Kojo attended Joliet Central and another private school. Kojo once talked about how he wanted to be a pastor and was baptized at Glory Tabernacle. He favored his father Augustine greatly as a child; you would often see him walking around the house dressed in his father's oversized clothing. Kojo had hopes on becoming a Welder. He loved eating noodles and seafood, and loved "cooling" as he would call it. Kojo is preceded in death by his great grandmother, Ruby Outlaw; grandfather, James Lee Fleming; grandfather, Tufuhene Anlimah Kojo Anaman; and grandmother, Hanah Anaman. Kojo leaves to cherish his memory, his mother, Charmain(Leo); father, Augustine Anaman; sisters, Vivian(Chris), Emily; brothers, Kwasi and King Josiah; grandmothers, Christine McClinton and Gloria Outlaw; aunts, Myia "Kay" , Chanel, Jennifer, and Ceara(Marquis); uncles, James, Tommie and Xavier. Kojo is also survived by three special nephews, Prince James, Christian, and Zion; numerous of cousins and a host of family and friends.
