“ Vanya Rebecca Venegas

“ I was Vanya's 1st grade teacher at Sator Sanchez School. Vanya was a joy to have in class! She had many friends and always tried her best.

I remember she would come into Saturday School to work in small groups with me. She loved that!

She loved when she would run into me at the mall and then tell everyone in our class that she saw me there.

I will keep you and your family in my prayers!

*Love,
K. Ratajczak*

“ I am a teacher at Woodland school where Vanya was a student. I did not have the pleasure of being her teacher but I heard such wonderful things about her from Ms. Cotton. Ms. Cotton had asked me if I could help her out if she couldn't make one of the home schooling sessions. After hearing such nice things about Vanya, of course I said yes! But that time never came and I never got to meet your little angel! My heart breaks for your family. I have a poem I would like to share:

I am Free

(Author By Linda Jo Jackson. Ottawa, Canada)

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid you see.

I took His hand when I heard Him call. I turned my back and left it all.

*I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.*

Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much, Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time here seemed all too brief.

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your hearts and peace to thee.

God wanted me now; He set me free!

I know that nothing we can do or say will make this any easier. But we will be praying your family and for Vanya!

Sincerely,

Christine St. Germain (1st grade teacher @ Woodland Elementary School)
